London / British Theme Nights

An evening in Camden, London celebrating Great Britishness from only £1475 Nationwide

An evening in Camden, London celebrating Great Britishness. Let Andy Smith Presents take you by the hand and lead you through the streets of London exploring the vibrant borough of Camden NW1

Mind the Gap! as we step into and immerse ourselves into one of the most fabulous capital Cities in the world "London" and visit all the sights London has to offer.

Take a stroll down the Mall where the sun is cracking the flags! to Buckingham Palace to watch the changing of the guard. All aboard and take the tube to St Johns Wood and to the most famous recording studios in the world "Abbey Road" Wait for the Green Man and take your positions on the zebra crossing to re enact the front cover of one of the most famous albums ever recorded "The Beatles Abbey Road"

Take a black cab over to the Borough of Camden and wander through The Stables Market and the umbrella canopy one of the most instagrammable photo opportunities in London. The Heavens have opened, and it's raining Cats n Dogs so take cover in the Camden Lock Pub that's steeped in musical history where Madness first took to the stage in 1979 with "One Step Beyond" and the nuttiest sound around.

Play it nice n cool and fall through the bar hatch of The Nags Head in the classic scene from Only Fools and Horses

Camden Square was home to the musical talent of Amy Winehouse and you are reminded of her legacy throughout the Borough.

We then head to Mayfair and try our luck in one of the most opulent private members gaming clubs in the capital where immaculately presented croupiers deal blackjack and roulette into the small hours.
